PRESS RELEASE

DG BSF INAUGURATES NEW ADMINISTRATIVE BLOCKS OF TWO BSF SECTOR HQRS
IN TRIPURA

On his return from Bangladesh, Shri K K Sharma, IPS, DG BSF accompanied by his wife Smt. Renu Sharma, President, BSF Wives Welfare Association (BWWA) inaugurated the newly built state-of-art Administrative Buildings of Sector HQ BSF Udaipur at Bagma and Sector HQ BSF Gokulnagar at Gokulnagar. He also addressed a Sainik Sammellan at Gokulnagar and exhorted the officers and jawans to work with zeal, commitment and devotion for effective Border Management. He also asked them to leave no stone unturned in maintaining peace and tranquillity along the International Border. He further dwelt upon several welfare schemes like financial literacy, e-learning Portals for wards of BSF personnel, soft loan schemes for housing for BSF troopers and asked all to avail the benefits of these special schemes. On 18th July 2017, he participated in a mass Yoga programme at Frontier HQ BSF Salbagan, in which 25 Officers, 74 Subordinate Officers and 477 Other Ranks, total 576 BSF personnel from various BSF establishments participated. Discussing the importance of yoga in armed forces, DG BSF emphasized that Yoga is not only useful for physical fitness and mental robustness but also helps us in overcoming stress and brings self-discipline. While appreciating the mass participation in Yoga session he urged all to make it a part of their daily routine. After yoga programme, he participated in a tree plantation drive in the BSF Campus Salbagan in which a number of fruit bearing saplings were planted to promote awareness among the troops for a clean and green environment. After the 2 - days tour to Tripura Frontier, he left for Delhi on 18.07.2017 by Air India Flight.
